

Let's Talk About Sex + Relationships!

This is a 12-week group program for youth on the autism spectrum and with other disabilities who would like to learn more about navigating relationships and expressing their sexuality.

From friendship to dating, love, and sex, this program covers a variety of topics to promote healthy relationships and sexual expression! Groups are facilitated by two Occupational Therapists, Mira & Amanda. For more information on Dream Weavers, visit www.DreamWeaversCollective.com
